

Nathan Brown (1988 – 2006)

Nathan Brodrick Brown passed away Jan. 9, 2006. He was born March 19, 1988 in Lake Havasu, Ariz. to Charles Wilson Brown and Bobbie Spotts. Nathan moved with his mother to Chino when he was six months old. He started school in Chino and played Little League. When he was almost four he became a big brother to Dillon. Nathan and his family moved to the High Desert in September 1995 and he has resided in Barstow since Jan. 2003. Nathan was preceded in death by his grandfather, Jack E. Brown of Scottsdale, Ariz., and his maternal grandparents, Robert and Myrna Spotts of Chino. The loved ones he left behind are his mother, Bobbie Spotts of Barstow; stepfather, Kenneth M. Sherman; brothers, Charles Jr. of Arizona and Dillon Sherman of Barstow; aunt and uncle, Terry and David Wadsley of Chino; cousins, Raydrealle and Joclynn Savage of Ontario, John Reed and Brittany Savage of Chino, Melissa Chavez of Chino, and Crystal Wadsley and Celeste of California; and many great-aunts and uncles that loved him as well. He also leaves behind the numerous friends he had from Barstow High School especially, David, Marc, Gene, and John who were with Nathan the last moments of his life. Last, but not least, his girlfriend, Vanessa Harris to whom his mother thinks of like a daughter. He will be greatly missed. Nathan's name means a gift from God and he truly was my precious gift. Visitation will be held Thursday, Feb. 9, 2006 from 4 to 6 p.m. at Mead Mortuary, 33930 Irwin Road. Services will follow at 6 p.m. also at Mead Mortuary.

Published in the Daily Press on February 8, 2006