

Charles R. Craft Sr. Obituary

Charles R. Craft, Sr. January 31, 1939 - December 12, 2014 Charlie passed away on December 12th, 2014 in Creswell, Oregon. He was our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and cousin. He was born to Ernest and Ellen Craft in Gladewater, Texas. He graduated High School in Barstow and was employed by the Santa Fe Railway. He married Sandy Hill of Barstow and they had two children, Chuck and Corrinne. He also lived in Fresno and Topeka, Kansas during his 40 years of service with the railroad. He retired in Oregon with his wife Sharon of 40 years. He was a skilled carpenter, mechanic and a consummate "do-it-your-selfer" who would build, fix and restore all things imaginable. He enjoyed fishing, boating, camping and nature along with politics and sports. He was well known for his keen sense of humor and is greatly missed by all who knew him. A celebration of life memorial service is pending. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation.

Published in the Daily Press on Mar. 14, 2015