

Andrew Anthony Jaramillo (1964-2007)

Andrew Jaramillo

Andrew Anthony Jaramillo, 43, passed away Oct. 9, 2007, at his Glendale home. Andrew was born May 4, 1964, in Barstow. He lived in California for 43 years and 38 years in the Victor Valley in the cities of Barstow and Victorville.

Andrew was a chef formerly for Pasadena Recover Center and currently for companies such as Fox, Disney and VH1. Andrew graduated from Barstow High School and Barstow Community College with an A.A. in business and California School of Culinary Arts Cordon Bleu program.

His is survived by his parents, Andrew J. and Angelina Jaramillo of Spring Valley Lake; sisters, Teresa Tonseth and her husband, Brian of Moreno Valley and Angelina De Rugama and her husband, Jose of Pinon Hills; nephews and special brothers, Tyler, Nicholas, Noah, Bobby, Timmy and Danny; grandmother, Pita Jaramillo of Barstow; aunt and uncle, Paulette and Tom Purdy of Barstow; aunt, Naydean Williams of Barstow; aunt and uncle, Lupe and Mark Mauldin; aunt and uncle, Mary and Alfred Arguilles of Newberry Springs; uncle, Anthony Jaramillo of Murrieta; aunt and uncle, Geraldine and Ed Simko of Barstow; aunt and uncle, Maria Esther and Ricardo Meza of Mexicali; aunt and uncle, Luis and Delores Hurtado of Mexicali; uncle and aunt, Liberio and Consuelo Hurtado of Mexicali; aunt, Antonia Kadry of Mexicali; aunt and uncle, Lupe and Nancy Hurtado of Bakersfield; special uncle and aunt, Dr. Vincent and Melanie Ajanwachuku of Spring Valley Lake; many friends, cousins, and colleagues who loved him and will miss his smile, love and sense of humor.

Andrew was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, Andres N. Jaramillo.

Visitation will be held Monday, Oct. 15, 2007, from 4 to 8 p.m. at Sunset Hills Memorial Chapel, 24000 Waalew Road in Apple Valley with rosary beginning at 6 p.m. The mass will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday at Holy Family Catholic Church, 9974 I Ave. in Hesperia. Interment will follow at Sunset Hills Memorial Park, 24000 Waalew Road. A celebration of Andrew's life will follow at Sunset Hills at 1 p.m.

Sunset Hills Memorial Park and Mortuary is handling the arrangement.

Published in the Daily Press on October 16, 2007