

MARSHALL LYNN MATTOX

MARSHALL LYNN MATTOX Marshall Lynn Mattox, 59, died unexpectedly April 22, 2012 at his home in Hesperia, CA. He was born February 17, 1953 in Pikeville, KY, the son of Sam and Betty Mattox. Marshall graduated from Kennedy High School (Barstow) class of 1971. Following graduation he played football for Barstow College. In 1976, he married Christy O'Connor and they began their life together in Barstow. They celebrated 35 years of marriage. Marshall managed Straw Hat Pizza East for many years. He was also the Director of Food Services for Silver Valley Unified School District, later Coachella Valley and finally Hesperia School Districts. Marshall spent many years coaching local sports, including high school football, youth football, little league baseball, soccer and also basketball. During his time as a coach he impacted many young lives. He loved traveling, spending time with his family and home improvement projects. Marshall is survived by his beloved wife, Christy (O'Connor) Mattox, his daughter Amber Currier (John) of Aztec, NM., son Brett Mattox (Jamie) of Barstow, CA, and son Cameron Mattox of Aztec, NM, five grandchildren, Gus Mattox, Nicole and Johnny Currier, Cash and Eli Mattox; three brothers, Gordon, Jack, and Jesse Mattox. A service of remembrance will be held at First Baptist Church, 1320 Barstow Rd., Barstow, CA on Saturday, April 28, 2012 at 10:00am.

Published in the Daily Press on April 26, 2012