

RIK LYNN MILLIGAN

RIK LYNN MILLIGAN Rik (Slik Rik) was born September 30, 1960, in Williamson, West Virginia and passed away April 18, 2012 after he suffered a massive stroke. Rik moved to Barstow when he was about 8 years old. He attended Cameron Elementary School and Kennedy High. He moved to Hesperia and then to North Hollywood where he became a free lance Artist specializing in Body Art.

His passion for tattooing led him to his own shop. In 1999, Rik moved to Haleiwa on the North Shore of Oahu, Hawaii where he opened North Shore Tattoo. In 2010, Rik moved back to the main land locating in Hesperia with his beloved Fiancee, Angelina Love. Rik was preceded in death by his mother Dulcie (Pat) Milligan and his grandparents Harrol and Nanny Stissel. Rik is survived by his Fiancee, Angelina Love, his son Darik (Rikkie) Milligan, Father Dale (Carol) Milligan of Barstow. Brother Jason (Tennelle), niece, Abigail Milligan of Arlington, TX along with numerous cousins, as well as his many friends. Private services were held with family members and friends on Thursday April 26, 2012.

Published in the Daily Press on May 2, 2012