

MICHAEL RAYMOND MITCHELL

Obituary

MICHAEL RAYMOND MITCHELL Michael Raymond "Mike" Mitchell, 51, of Euless, Texas, died Wednesday, July 30, 2014 in an accident in Austin, Texas. Born February 19, 1963 in Bellflower, California, he is the son of Kenneth Raymond and Marika Plyler Mitchell. He played baseball with the William S. Hart Boys Baseball League, then played baseball at Barstow High School, and was on the school golf team and later graduated from high school at Barstow, California and later moved to New York where he was lieutenant and first responder with the Walker Valley, New York Volunteer Fire Department. He was a commercial truck driver with Yellow Roadway Trucking Company for nearly 28 years. Preceded in death by a brother, Garret (Gary) Lee Mitchell; he is survived by his parents, Kenneth and Marika Mitchell of Simms, Texas; sisters, Elizabeth Schmitt and husband, David of Barstow, California and Joyce Yulo and husband, Jose of Pleasanton, California; paternal grandmother, Gladys Mitchell of Chino Valley, Arizona; step-daughters, Morgan Short of Colleyville, Texas and Mackenzie George of Euless, Texas; grandchildren, Avery, Simone, and Scarlett; nieces, Tawney Armantrout and husband, Jeff of Redlands, California, and Ari Yulo of Pleasanton, California; nephews, Butch Schmitt and wife, Eve of Richland, Washington (children Brook and Emmitt), and Jake Yulo of Pleasanton, California; uncle, John Mitchell and wife, Debi of Orange, California; aunts, Janet Deal and husband, Charles of Hobart, Indiana, Georgia Appel and husband, Marvin of Rio Rancho, New Mexico, Shirley Culton and husband, Bob of Chino Valley, Arizona, and Sandy Shamblin and husband, George of Carlsburg, Washington; twenty cousins and their families. A memorial service was held 2 p.m. Sunday, August 3, 2014 at Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home Chapel in Irving.

Published in the Daily Press on Aug. 6, 2014