

RAMONA MORA

Ramona Mora went to her mansion in heaven on June 5, 2011. Ramona was the eldest daughter of Indalecio and Lazara Mora. She was born April 28, 1918 at Rancho Ojo de Agua, Chihuahua, Mexico. She was brought to the United States when she was four years old. Ramona lived in the High Desert area since she was six years old. She attended Yermo Elementary School and Barstow High School. She began her employment career as a domestic for Dr. Nelson and his family. It was there that she learned the art of cooking that allowed her to later work as a cook and waitress in some of Barstow's earlier fine restaurants. When she retired in 1970 she became a caregiver to her parents. Ramona is survived by her daughter, Jane Mora and her fiancée, Ignacio Felix; her sisters, Rose Mora Rodriguez and her husband, John of San Jose, CA., and Paula Mora Padilla of Victorville, CA.; 19 nieces and nephews, 13 grandnieces and grandnephews, and 9 great-grandnieces and great-grandnephews. Graveside services will be held on Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at Mt. View Cemetery, 37067 Ft. Irwin Road.

Published in the Daily Press from June 7 to June 17, 2011