

Jean "Kinder" (Rameriz) Berry (1957-2016)

Obituary

Jean "Kinder" (Ramirez) Berry, 59, passed away on December 9, 2016.

She was born on September 16, 1957, in Oceanside, California to Samuel Sr. and Jean (Torres) Ramirez. She married Darrell Harberts on September 18, 1976. They divorced in 2013. Jean remarried on June 24, 2016, to Larry Berry. Jean will be remembered for her 18 year career as a kindergarten teacher at

Brown Early Childhood Center in Portales and her work with the Boy Scouts at Wehinahpay Mountain Camp near Sacramento, NM. She also volunteered at food banks, and with the church. Jean was also very active in the lives of her children and grandchildren.

Jean is survived by her mother, Jean White and her husband Larry Berry; her siblings, Samuel Ramirez Jr, Febe Ramirez, Daniel Ramirez, Mary Louise Madrid, Louis Madrid; her daughters, Rachel Dominguez and Jean Harberts and her two sons, Daniel Harberts and David Harberts; and 3 grandchildren, Jean Swopes, Justin Harberts-Miller and Desiree McWilliams. Jean is also survived by Leroy Berry, Lori Norris and several children and grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Mary Lynn Harberts, and her father, Samuel Ramirez Sr. and William White.

Memorial services will be held at 11:00am on Wednesday, December 14, 2016, at the home of Larry Berry in Tularosa, New Mexico. A second memorial will be held at 11:00am on Saturday, December 17 2016, at the First United Methodist church in Portales New Mexico.

Published in the Clovis News Journal on Dec. 13, 2016