

John Rincon

John David Rincon, 39, of Barstow, died Tuesday, March 13, 2001 at home. Born in Barstow and a graduate of Barstow High School, Rincon worked for Yellow Freight trucking as a hostler for 18 years. He moved to Stockton 13 years ago. Survivors include his parents, Albert and Delia Rincon of Barstow; his wife, Valerie Rincon of Stockton; four children, Charie Rincon, Alison Rincon, Jonathan Rincon, and Skye Rincon, all of Stockton; three brothers, Albert Dale Rincon of Long Beach, Anthony Rincon of Ventura and Mark Rincon of San Francisco; and one sister, Barbara Rincon Jones of Fieldbrook. Friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 17, 2001 at the Cathedral of the Annunciation, 1110 N. Lincoln St., Stockton. A memorial service will be held in Barstow in April. Memorial donations may be sent to the Hospice of San Joaquin, 2609 E. Hammer Lane, Stockton 95209. Arrangements are being handled by Rocha's Mortuary in Lodi.

Published in the Daily Press on March 13, 2001