

TERRY JARAMILLO

Obituary

TERRY (STOVALL) JARAMILLO 12/8/1947 - 6/17/2013 Terry (Stovall) Jaramillo passed away on June 17, 2013 at her home in Barstow, California. She was born December 8, 1947 in Handford, CA to Roland and Francis Stovall and lived most of her life in Newberry Springs and Yermo, CA before moving to Barstow in 2011. In her early years, Terry, along with her friend Hannah (Moore) Browning, worked at the very first "Del Taco" which was built in Yermo. Soon after, she went on to work at the MCLB in Yermo in 1974 where she eventually worked in the Optics Department. She worked there until she went out on disability in 1988. Terry was preceded in death by her father; Roland Stovall, her mother; Francis Stovall Buehler, a sister; Kathy Rodriquez and a brother; Rusty Stovall. She is survived by her daughter; Tina Jaramillo of Barstow, sisters; Sandy Haverlock (Ken) of Las Vegas, Amber Luna of Barstow, her grandson; Gregory Koehler of North Dakota, her ex-husband and friend, Dennis Jaramillo of Yermo, nieces Monica Luna, Tani Bamburg, Tracy Blount, Saleta Bordier, nephews Randy Williams, Scott Haverlock, Jerry Rodriquez, and Roland Stovall, her bedtime companion "Bitsy", one of her buddies and partners in crime, Sandie Martin, and many many friends who loved her dearly and will truly miss her. Terry spent many years exploring the desert and the Calico Mountains where she eventually had a home built below Calico Ghost Town. She was instrumental in helping repaint the "CALICO" sign on the mountains above Calico. She lived for her summers where she could spend fun times camping and boating on the Colorado River with her family and friends. She hiked the Grand Canyon and one year rode the burros down to the bottom. She enjoyed trips to Hawaii and cruises to Mazatlan and Puerto Vallarta with her family and friends. She had fun times skiing Big Bear and "trying" to ski Mammoth. Another great hobby of hers was reading and cuddling up to her dog and great companion "Bitsy". Terry will always be remembered for her honesty and loyalty to her friends and Family and for her fantastic sense of humor. There will be a Celebration of Life at the Yermo American Legion Post 797, 401 Knowles St. in Yermo, on July 13, 2013 at 1p.m.
