

Britney Togstad (1988-2002)

Brittney Angel Togstad, 14, a lifetime resident of Barstow, died Friday, Nov. 22, 2002 in Daggett. Born Jan. 13, 1988, she was a freshman at Barstow High School. She loved music and dancing and was a real people-loving person. Survivors include her mother Tami Togstad of Barstow; father, Kevin Togstad of Barstow; brother, Mark Anthony Togstad of Barstow; sister, Bridgette Togstad of Barstow; grandfather and grandmother, Luis Estrada and Mary Estrada of Barstow; grandfather and grandmother, Robert Togstad and Charlene Togstad of Chico; grandmother, Shirley Woodrum of Barstow; aunts, Debbie Panagos of Olympia, Wash., Anna Marie Cervantes of San Diego, Laura Woodrum of Washington, Sharon Woodrum of Barstow, and Laurie Raiser of Chico; uncles, Troy Estrada, Luis Estrada Jr., Richard Woodrum, David Woodrum of Barstow; Mario Estrada of Oakland; and Tim Togstad of Chico; many cousins and many, many friends. Visitation is Sunday, Dec. 1, 2002 from 5 to 7 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, 505 E. Mountain View. A vigil will follow at 7 p.m. also at St. Joseph Catholic Church. Mass will be Monday, Dec. 2, 2002 at 11 a.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church. Burial will be at Mountain View Memorial Park, 37067 Irwin Road. Donations can be sent to Washington Mutual Bank, 1291 E. Main St.

Published in the Daily Press on November 30, 2002