

Patsy G. Anderson

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. John 14:1-3

Death is but an instant
Pain will end,
Glory is forever,
Together with our Lord again.

Patsy was born may 30, 1937 to the union of Girtha and L. C. Willis. At an early age, she accepted Christ and was baptized at the St. Paul Baptist Church in Taylor, Arkansas.

The family relocated to Barstow, California in 1953. In 1956 she graduated from Barstow High School. During these years she worked at Hill's Dairy cleaning chickens for local grocers and cooked at the Old Route 66 El Rancho Restaurant. Patsy moved to Los Angeles and lived there for about 30 years. She united with the California Harvest Tabernacle, where she held various positions within the ministry. She worked as an LVN for Queen of angels Hospital for 15 years. There she met and married her husband, Lee Anderson.

Patsy returned to Barstow in the early 1990's to care for her sister, Emma Dean, until the Lord called her home. She reunited with Union Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Waymon Brown. Being a faithful church member, she served many ministries throughout the church; Pastor's Aid, General Mission Naomi Circle, Youth Department and the Sunday School Ministry. She drove the church van as a driver/chaperone for the youth, mission and church functions.

Patsy served faithfully until her health no longer allowed her to.

Patsy was preceded in death by her husband, Lee Anderson, mother, Girtha Lock, father, L. C. Willis, sisters, Emma and Gloria, and grandson, Travon Willis.

She leaves to cherish her memory daughters, Annie Willis of Barstow CA and Darlene Lock of Victorville, CA, sons Rev. Mitchell Brown of Rialto, Ca and Mark Anderson of Barstow, CA, granddaughter, Aisha, grandsons, DeVonn, John and Daniel, great-granddaughters, Spirit and Eden, aunts, Bertha Barrow and Essie Moore of Taylor, AR, the Courtney Family cousins of Barstow, CA and a host of other relatives.
