

Floyd Younger

Obituary

FLOYD YOUNGER Floyd W. Younger, born Nov. 5 1939 in Mammoth, Ariz., and died March 15, 2013 in Barstow, Ca. He is survived by his wife Pat Younger; daughter, Sally Duval and her husband, Bob Duval of Crescent City, CA; three grandchildren, Mandy, Tiffany and Bob and his wife, Tennille; and three great-grandchildren. Plus many adopted sons and daughters, grandkids, and great-grandkids; two brothers, Doug and Cole and their wives and families; three sisters, Janet, Beverly and Jeana and their families; plus two sisters-in-law and their families. Floyd lived in Barstow most of his growing up years. He graduated from Barstow High School in 1959. He loved to explore the desert and work in his garden, and also golfing and fishing. In his later years he loved cooking. He was known for his cookies and candy. Memorial services will be held on March 30, 2013 at the Kingdom Hall, 27777 Rimrock at 2 p.m.

Published in the Daily Press on March 27, 2013