

ROBERT ZAMORA (1974-2013)

Obituary

ROBERT ZAMORA Robert "Bob" Zamora, 38, beloved father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, and friend, passed away Jan. 10, 2013. He was born on March 4, 1974 in Barstow, Ca., and a graduate of Barstow High School in 1992. He is survived by his mother, Nancy; daughter, Desirae; grandchildren, Mikah and Madalyn; his 100 year old grandmother who lives in Albuquerque; brothers, Rick and, Ida and their kids, Richard, Chris, Deanna, Kaytlynn, and Ray; Ron and Bobbie and their kids, Rosalena, Nicole, and Ronny, and brother Danny; and many nieces and nephews and aunts and uncles and cousins of Barstow. Bob worked as a government contractor for 15 years and was a business owner. Bob loved his family, bowling, and going to Stateline and being with friends. Bob was full of life and wants us to remember him that way. You will be missed and will be loved to the moon and back. Services will be held at St. Joseph Catholic Church on Thursday at 10 a.m. on Jan. 17, 2013 with a reception to follow at Noonan Hall. Burial will be private.

Published in the Daily Press on January 15, 2013