

Brenda May Rivera (1962-2009)

Brenda Rivera

Brenda May Rivera, a resident of Crescent City, Calif., passed away Feb. 23, 2009 at Stanford Hospital in Stanford, Calif. She was born May 22, 1962 in Fortuna, Calif.

She worked as a medical records clerk for four years at Open Door Community Clinic. She graduated from Barstow High School in 1980 and worked for Croal's Drug Store and also Barstow Community Hospital. She was also a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary Post 2143 in Barstow.

She is preceded in death by her father, Elmer Martin Blaha.

She is survived by her husband, Andrew Rivera of Brawley, Calif.; sons, Lemar and Cody Rivera of Brawley; brother and sister-in-law, Joseph and Chris Blaha of Melbourne, Fla.; mother, Charlotte M. Wallace of Crescent City; and sister, Julie M. Blaha of Smith River.

Published in the Daily Press on March 7, 2009