

Victor Brice

Victor Anthony Brice, 50, of Nanticoke, passed away July 29, 2006, at his girlfriend's home in Hughestown. He suffered a heart attack and was pronounced dead at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Born March 11, 1956, in Wilkes-Barre, he was a son of the late Joseph and Rita Dolores (Coulter) Brice. He was a member of Holy Saviour Church, Wilkes-Barre.

He grew up in Wilkes-Barre, graduated from Barstow

High School, Barstow, Calif.

He served in the U.S. Navy and was honorably discharged. He later served eight years in the U.S. Naval Reserves.

He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from College Misericordia.

Vic was formerly employed at Tobyhanna Army Depot for the Department of Defense as a distribution facilities specialist, where he traveled extensively in the capacity until retiring in 2001.

He was presently employed as a caseworker at the Lehigh County Assistance Office for the Commonwealth of Pa.

He was also a Red Cross Disaster Services volunteer, recently helping flood victims in our area.

He was a true humanitarian and made friends easily. Known for his big heart and generous spirit, he said his mission in life was to help others.

He was a hard-working, good man who helped everyone and anyone.

He loved yard work, fixing homes and helping neighbors in any capacity, never looking for payment.

One of Vic's best friends for years was his dog, Sparky. Vic will be forever remembered and loved by so many people whose lives he touched, especially by his longtime girlfriend, Naomi Chopyak and her family.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Patricia Brice, and a sister-in-law, Carole Brice.

Surviving are his longtime girlfriend, Naomi Chopyak, Hughestown; sisters Rita Malloy, Wilkes-Barre; Jean Voyton, Pocono Lake; Josephine Brice, Hazleton; Mary Chapman, Wilkes-Barre; Sharon Bell, Edwardsville; brothers Joseph Jr., Lily Lake; Edward, Glen Lyon; numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, Aug. 2, 2006, at 8:45 a.m. from the Earl W. Lohman Funeral Home, 14 W. Green St., Nanticoke, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 9:30 a.m. in Holy Saviour Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Interment will be in St. Francis Cemetery, Plains Township.

Friends may call tonight from 5 to 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial may be given to the American Red Cross, 256 N. Sherman St., Wilkes-Barre, or the SPCA, Fox Hill Road, Wilkes-Barre.
