

Patricia Ann Frances "Patsy" Guzman (1959-2011)

Patricia Guzman

Patricia Ann "Patsy" Frances Guzman, 51, of Barstow, was called home to be with the Lord on Jan. 15, 2011. She was a loving mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. She will be remembered for her wonderful sense of humor, her generosity and sensitivity, and her unselfish caring and giving to family and friends. For all that knew her, Patsy was set-in-her-ways, striving to be the best she could be at home and work, always providing and doing right for her family.

Patsy was born in Barstow on March 17, 1959, to parents, Ernesto and Catalina Miranda, and was a Barstonian all 51 years of her life. She attended both elementary and Barstow High School here, and later was employed with Walmart and Barstow Unified School District. During her free time, you could find her playing bingo or enjoying a good card game. Her hobbies included ceramics, knitting or hosting a bingo game for the neighborhood kids. She also enjoyed listening to the music of Elvis, and going on a trip to Disneyland.

Patsy is survived by her son, Paul Guzman of Barstow; daughter, Priscilla Guzman of Barstow; four grandchildren; brother, Richard Miranda and his wife, Henrietta of Barstow; sister, Olivia Esquibel of Claremont, Calif.; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Celebration of Patsy's Life will be held on Friday at 11 a.m., on Jan. 21, 2011, at Connection Community Church, 850 E. Main Street in Barstow.

Burial will follow at Mountain View Memorial Park, 37067 Irwin Road.

Arrangements entrusted to Horizon Memorial Services of Barstow, 760-252-5222.
