

LESLIE HAILEY (1949 – 2011)

LESLIE HAILEY Leslie Allen Hailey better known as Pete was born October 25, 1949 to the union of Robert and Mary Hailey. He was the second eldest of nine children. The Hailey's settled into family life in Daggett, Calif., and later moved to Barstow. Pete attended Daggett elementary school and later graduated from Barstow High School. Pete accepted Christ in his life and was baptized at Union Missionary Baptist Church as a young child. He met and married his life companion and friend Patricia Searcy in August 31, 1968. Pete was employed and retired after forty years with Santa Fe Railroad where he worked as a Foreman. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, playing a game of dominoes and cards in his garage. Pete was preceded in death by his parents, brother, McGregory (Mac) Hailey and granddaughter Breanna Beville. God saw that it was time for Pete to rest and called him home on Sunday, November 13, 2011. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of forty three years, Patricia Hailey, one son, Oddie (Cynthia) Hailey, of San Diego, CA, three daughters, Lyteres (Reginald) Hodges of Las Vegas, NV, Felicia (Dion) Brown of Barstow, CA, and Autumn (Eugenio) Gallegos of Barstow, CA. Four brothers, Robert (Brenda) Hailey of Sacramento, CA, Chester (Verlina) Hailey of Lancaster, CA, Barney Hailey of Oakland, CA and Willie Hailey Sr. of Barstow, CA. Three sisters, Athena Clay, Alma Hailey and Beatrice Mattingly all of Barstow, CA. Sister in-law's, Mary Hailey, Betty Hailey and Regina Sims. Sixteen grandchildren, Jenae, Jazleen, Stephanie, Chance, Tiarra, Asia, Dion, Camryn, Jamar, Brittany, Arianna, Amadee, Jalen, Kenyen, Sierra and Amari. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. The memory of your presence will not die, and some happy day again we will meet, As you proceed we do not say goodbye.

Published in the Daily Press from November 22 to December 2, 2011