

DANIEL A. KING

Obituary

Daniel A. King May 18, 1961 - December 30, 2014 Daniel A. King died of natural causes in his home in Anchorage, Alaska at the age of 53. Dan was born in Topeka, Kansas and moved to Barstow, California in 1965. He was a graduate of Barstow High School and Barstow Community College. Later he moved to the beautiful state of Alaska and resided there for 25 years. He is survived by his two children, Rachel King and William R. King II; his mother, Leta King of Barstow; and sisters, Kathy Moon and Cindy Nirenberg. He will be remembered for his passion for hunting and fishing, his sense of humor, and his love for nature and the outdoors.

Published in the Daily Press on Jan. 3, 2015