

Hector Luna

1931 - 2021

March 27, 1931 - January 15, 2021 On Friday, January 15, 2021, Hector Luna, a providing husband and caring father, grandfather and great-grandfather passed away peacefully in his sleep at his home in San Bernardino, Ca. He was shy of his 90th birthday. Born in Needles, California, to Pedro and Rebecca Luna. He graduated from Barstow High School Class of 1950. Hector proudly served his country in the United States Air Force during the Korean War. He was a very humble and selfless family man whose faith and trust in the Virgin de Guadalupe gave him the great inner strength that helped form his character. He now joins in heaven his loving daughter Rebecca (2007), grandson Nicholas (2017), brother Ramon (2001), sister Rebecca (2020), mother and father. Hector is survived by his wife Martha, daughters Julie Musich and Alma (Todd Lesko), son Cuauhtemoc (Tammy), grandsons Carlos and Andres Luna plus eight loving grandchildren and eighteen sweet great-grandchildren. He will be deeply missed by his family. Visitation and Rosary: Thursday, March 4, 2021, 10:00 a.m. at Thomas Miller Mortuary Riverside.
