

Maurice McCarron (1925-2010)

Maurice McCarron

Maurice Eugene McCarron passed away March 22, 2010 in Logan, Utah. Born in Sierra Madre Jan. 16, 1925, he lived in Hinkley most of his youth. After serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II he returned to the Barstow area and graduated from Barstow High School with the class of 1946.

He was an engineer with Boeing Air Craft for a number of years and then managed his own business until he retired to Utah.

Survived by his wife of almost 60 years, the former Sarah Farmer; a sister, June Yoshida; children; grandchildren; and great-grandchildren.

Maurice was buried with a simple service in Logan, Utah.

Published in the Daily Press on April 14, 2010