

Dolores McMullin

Dolores McMullin, 72, died Dec. 24, 2001 at home in Redding. McMullin was born July 7, 1929 in Ottawa, Kan. In 1943 she moved to Barstow where she spent the next 50 years. She graduated from Barstow High School in 1947, married Joseph McMullin in 1949. She was a homemaker and they were co-owners of McMullin Chevrolet. Later she and Joe became the co-owners of Harts Cafe in Yermo. She moved to Pismo Beach in 1993 and then to Redding in 2000. She is survived by two sons; Bill McMullin of Bishop, Jeff McMullin of Barstow; daughter; Leisa McMullin of Arroyo Grande; sister and brother-in-law; Eileen and John Patton of Redding; brother; Gary Sweet of Redding and three grandchildren; Corey, Andrew and Brenna, all of Bishop. A memorial service will be held Thursday, Jan. 3, 2002 at Mead Mortuary, 36930 Irwin Road. Burial is at Riverview Cemetery, Needles.

Published in the Daily Press on December 31, 2001