

Karl J. Miller III

Karl J. Miller III, 59, was born Oct. 18, 1944, in Erie, Pa., and died March 1, 2004, at Kindred Rehabilitation Hospital in Las Vegas, NV. He was raised in Fontana and was a longtime resident there. He graduated from Barstow High School in Barstow, CA in 1963. Karl served in the U.S. Air Force from 1963 to 1967, serving in Greenland and Vietnam. He suffered for years with complications of Agent Orange contracted in Vietnam. He loved taking picture, loud, loud music and his little dog, Rickie. He enjoyed working on computers and at o ne time owned Miller's Computer Repair in Fontana. Karl III is survived by his brothers, Ronald J. Miller of San Bernardino, Clint J. Miller of Palm Desert, Denis J. Miller of Fontana; sisters, Laura G. Roberts of Wenatchee, WA, Karen R. Miller of Rancho Cucamonga; and step-mother, Eleanor F. Miller of Rancho Cucamonga; aunts, Josephine Swearengin of San Bernardino Mary Lou Winters of Dayton, Ohio; uncle, Joseph Sroka of Riverside; aunts, Millie Miller of Riverside, Jackie Miller of Florence, OR; uncles, Warren Miller of Melborne, FL, Clarence Clark of Riverside. Also survived by many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends, who will miss him. Graveside services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday, March 19 at Bellevue Memorial Park, Veterans Garden, 1240 W. "G" St., Ontario.

Published in Inland Valley Daily Bulletin on March 17, 2004