

David V. Vargas Jr.

Obituary

David V. Vargas II, at the age of 29, entered into his Father God's Heavenly Kingdom on Dec. 22, 2008.

David was a 1997 graduate of Barstow Aztec High School. He also earned a certificate at the Laborers Apprenticeship Training School, Local 783 in Azusa, in 2008.

In his youth, he participated in many sports activities like baseball, basketball, pee wee football, soccer, karate and amateur boxing.

David was a person with a big passionate heart and glowing smile. He would rather give than receive. His kind personality was noticeable instantly. He was the best friend anyone could have. His hobbies were break-dancing, going to the gym and working out. He liked going to see professional boxing matches with his father and brother. David enjoyed going to Christian rallies and worships with his pastor, reading and studying his personal Bible and witnessing the salvation of God to the lost.

David was employed at the Las Vegas Paving Corp. for about eight months. He also worked for the City of Barstow, maintaining the softball fields at the recreation division.

David attended the Abundant Living Fellowship Church, where he was an usher. He was baptized at the High Desert Church in Victorville on Oct. 14, 2007. He was a faithful servant in God's works, bringing many souls to the cross.

David was preceded in death by his grandfather, Mike F. Vargas; and his aunt, Mary Ellen Jimenez.

Surviving David are his father, David V. Vargas Sr. of Barstow; mother Rose A. Vargas of Barstow; brother, Adriano A. Vargas of Barstow; grandmothers, Margaret Q. Vargas and Flora Eylicio of Barstow; aunts and uncles, Mary and Rudy Saucedo of Rialto, Aldolfo and Rena Silva of Barstow, Diane and Matt Stanton of Wisconsin, Michael and Darlene Bernal of Houston, Texas, Loretta Vargas of Barstow, Kathy Carmona of Barstow, Larry Eylicio of Barstow, and Fred Eylicio of Barstow; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Tuesday, Jan. 6, 2009 at 9 a.m. at the High Desert Word Center, 30918 Soapmine Road. Funeral service will be at 10 a.m., and burial will follow at Mt. View Memorial Park, 37067 Irwin Road.

Donations may be made in David's memory to the Abundant Living Fellowship, 300 Hutchenson St., Barstow, Calif. 92311.
