

William R. Weygandt

Obituary

WILLIAM R. WEYGANDT 7/31/1953 - 12/7/2013 William R. Weygandt, 60, is resting from his labors after a five year battle with Alzheimer's Disease. Bill was born in Paso Robles, California in 1953 to Merle and Frances Weygandt. After moving to Barstow in 1966, Bill helped his parents build a family owned heating and air conditioning business which served the high desert 45 years until his illness required its closure. Bill spent his youth and adult years as a Barstow resident being very active in the community. He enjoyed ministering to others with such venues as Desert Manna and Habitat for Humanity. He loved flying, hiking, camping and touring our national parks. He was preceded in death by his parents, Merle and Frances, and his first wife, Jere. He is survived by second wife Joleen, daughters Allison (Jeff) Brown and Rachel Lannie, grandson Jacob Brown, sister Chris (Joe) Alba, brother Chuck (Lynne) Weygandt, numerous extended family members and loved ones. A memorial service will be held at Concordia Lutheran Church, 400 Avenue E, on Saturday, December 14th at 2:00pm. The family wishes to thank Gentiva Hospice and Rimrock Villa for their kindness and loving care in Bill's final days. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation in Bill's name to Alzheimer's research or his beloved Concordia.

Published in the Daily Press from Dec. 13 to Dec. 14, 2013